

Presenter Biographies
Alphabetical by last name
2024 CCO Oregon Annual Conference

Amanda Beaver, Resource Navigation and Engagement Program Manager, Familias en Acción. Amanda has a B.S. in Public Health for Health Promotion and Behavior with a focus in Community Health. Amanda has spent her time working with Latine/a/o families in city recreation programs, community health centers, and now at Familias en Acción. She is dedicated to reducing health inequities for folks navigating complex systems and supporting CHW navigation services.

Akiko Imamura Betcher, Community Health Consultant, Kaiser Permanente Northwest.

Akiko joined Kaiser Permanente in 2017, and currently serves as a Community Health consultant at KP Northwest. With 17 years in health care, she has deep experience working in addressing health equity issues.

Rick Blackwell, Oregon Director of Government Relations, PacificSource Community Solutions. Rick manages and coordinates PacificSource's public policy and lobbying efforts in Oregon. Prior to his time at PacificSource, Rick served as the policy manager for Oregon's Insurance Commissioner. In that role, Rick managed the legislative, rulemaking and policy agenda for the Division of Financial Regulation. Rick holds a JD from Willamette University and a BA in political science from Carroll College in Helena, Montana. Rick serves as Secretary of the CCO Oregon Board of Directors.

Lisa Bozzetti, Dental Director, Virginia Garcia Memorial Health Center. Lisa oversees six dental clinics, a school-based sealant program, dental therapy, and dental hygiene services integrated into primary care and mobile outreach at Virginia Garcia, an FQHC serving Washington and Yamhill counties. She is passionate about integrated health services.

Michelle Brandsma, Director of the Oregon Behavioral Health and Justice Integration, Greater Oregon Behavioral Health (GOBHI). Michelle has been with GOBHI for over nine years and has a 23-year career in behavioral health and substance use disorders.

Sarah Brewer, Plan President and Chief Executive Officer, Trillium Community Health Plan. Sarah has been a health care leader in Oregon for more than 20 years and joined Trillium in 2022. She has dedicated her career to helping our underserved and vulnerable populations. She is passionate about collaborating with local providers, community organizations, and state partners to ensure all Oregonians have access to equitable, culturally responsive, and integrated care.

Alicia Bublitz, Social Determinants and Transformation Manager, InterCommunity Health Network CCO. Alicia is a Community Health Worker. She began her career working in reproductive and sexual health and is now supporting innovative community-led health equity work. Despite living in Oregon for nearly 20 years, she does not particularly enjoy hiking but does love a good garden.

Manu Chaudhry, President, Capitol Dental Care. Manu has dedicated his career to transforming the delivery of care and improving overall health outcomes. His leadership experience includes multi-region dental practices and collaborative organizations that reduce oral and overall health disparities. Manu serves as Vice Chair of OHA's Metric and Scoring Committee and as a member of the Health IT Oversight Council as well as the Health Care Workforce Committee. He holds an MS in Biomedical Engineering from the University of California, San Diego and earned his DDS from University of the Pacific.

Tonya Clark, Executive Assistant, Capitol Dental Care. Tonya has been with Capitol Dental for more than ten years and has committed her career to enhancing the efficiency of oral health care delivery through advanced technology to address the Quadruple Aim. Her most recent achievement was assisting in developing and streamlining processes with the AI-driven Handicapping Labio-Lingual Deviation scorer and Ortho Program. Her experience includes serving as a Certified Nurse's Assistant and her interests include coaching baseball and basketball.

Mica Contreras, Executive Director, Linn Benton Lincoln Health Equity Alliance. Mica is dedicated to advancing health equity and empowering communities while amplifying the voices of those most affected by health inequities.

Amie Diffenauer, Community Programs Manager, Our Just Future. Amie has been working in social services since 2005. While at Our Just Future, Amie has managed a homeless family shelter, helped homeless families secure permanent housing, and currently manages various Permanent Supportive Housing programs, the CareOregon Peer Support Specialist Program, and the adult shelter housing team.

Zaira Flores Marin, Marion-Polk CCO Director, PacificSource Community Solutions. Originally from Morelos, Mexico, Zaira immigrated to the mid-Willamette Valley as a child, where her family were farmworkers. Her career began at NW Senior and Disability Services in Medicaid long-term care. As a volunteer, she organizes cancer support group meetings for Spanish-speaking women and is on the board for the local Habitat for Humanity and homeless alliance. Zaira earned her Bachelor of Science in Economics from Portland State University.

Jacinta Galea'i, Executive Director, Samoa Pacific Development Corporation. Jacinta was raised in Amerika Samoa and Seattle. A former educator in writing, Pacific Literature, and Samoan culture, she is dedicated to social justice and preserving Pacific cultures. She holds a PhD from the University of Hawai'i and a degree from the University of Washington.

Sandra Garcia Fresh, Operations and Policy Analyst, Oregon Department of Human Services. Sandra has worked with ODHS for about two years. She was a permanency caseworker for about a year and a half before her current role. In her free time, she enjoys watching the Portland Thorns play, fishing, spending time with her family, and collecting Legos from the Botanical Collection.

Kyle Geelan, Lead Dentist / Head of Dental Innovations, Wallace Medical Concern. Kyle is an Oregon native who received his Doctor of Medicine in Dentistry (DMD) from OHSU in 2014. He has nine years of experience working in public health. Kyle served as the director of Wallace Dental Clinic for seven years before recently transitioning into a clinical and innovations role.

Bruce Goldberg, Professor, OHSU-Portland State University School of Public Health. Over the past four decades, Bruce's career has spanned leadership roles across a number of health care organizations in the public and private sector. He served two Oregon governors as the director of the Oregon Office for Health Policy and Research and the director of the Oregon Department of Human Services. He was also the founding director of the Oregon Health Authority when the coordinated care model and CCOs were established

Jeremy Gordon, Board of Commissioners, Polk County. Jeremy was appointed to the Board of Commissioners in August 2021 and elected to a four-year term in May 2022. He previously served as Mayor of Falls City from 2017 to 2021 and helped lead many successful projects and community initiatives. Jeremy has worked in the fields of higher education administration, where he helped launch a competency-based degree program for the University of Wisconsin- Milwaukee, finance, and music performance.

Jennifer Gustafson, Director of Community Engagement, AllCare Health. Jennifer works to improve people's lives in Southern Oregon by addressing their diverse health and social needs. She has been instrumental in bridging emergency management relationships that have changed the way AllCare responds to emergency events, ensuring member and community safety. She sits on various community councils and coalitions and is the chair of a local mental health non-profit. Jennifer holds a national Commission for Case Manager Certification and a state Problem Gambling certification.

Sarah Harstein, Interim Deputy Director of Public Health, Benton County Health Department. Sara oversees public health programs and services including communicable disease, harm reduction, immunizations, reproductive health, Women, Infants, and Children (WIC), and perinatal, maternal, child, and family health. Sara manages the Healthy Communities Division, which focuses on prevention through policy, systems, and environmental change. Sara earned her Master of Public Health from Oregon State University.

Maureen Hinman, Executive Director, Oregon School-Based Health Alliance. Maureen has 14 years of experience advocating for school health services. She has enhanced school-based health centers, boosted mental health funding, and led trauma-informed school initiatives. Previously, she worked with the Oregon Public Health Division and managed a clinic for homeless youth.

Justin Hopkins, Executive Director, Willamette Health Council. Justin has over 20 years of nonprofit, government, and behavioral health managed care experience. He has spent his career working to create policies and practices that lead to better health outcomes for communities. In partnership with local healthcare leaders, Justin helped establish the Willamette Health Council in 2019, serving as the initial chair of the board of directors before becoming Executive Director. Justin holds a bachelor's degree from Willamette University and a Master's in Human Services from Warner Pacific University.

Christy Hudson, System of Care Transformation Manager, Oregon Health Authority System of Care Advisory Council (SOCAC). Christy seeks to create equitable systems change for young people who live with complex behavioral health conditions and intellectual/developmental disabilities. Part of her responsibility is to resolve system barriers, like family respite, which have been elevated to the SOCAC.

Barbara Hudson-Hanley, Environmental and Occupational Health Program Instructor, Oregon State University College of Health. Barbara is an environmental epidemiologist interested in children's health. has been a member of Benton County's Housing, Opportunities, Planning & Equity (HOPE) advisory board since 2020.

Cyrus Javadi, Oregon State Representative, District 32 - North Coast. Cyrus earned his bachelor's degree in accounting and worked in the financial industry before pursuing his passion for health care and earning his doctorate in dental surgery. He currently operates a private dental practice in Tillamook. He has served as a Commissioner for the Port of Tillamook, the Dental Director for the Tillamook County Health Department, the Secretary for the Oregon Dental Association (ODA), and a member of the ODA Board of Trustees.

Todd Jeter, Behavioral Health Director and Interim Director of Social Determinants of Health, Equity, and Transformation, InterCommunity Health Network CCO. Todd is an experienced behavioral health clinician and systems leader with a passion for improving access to high quality behavioral health and social care services and supports. He has worked diligently to strengthen community relationships and support collaborative approaches to improving health outcomes.

Alexa Jett, Director of Oral Health Clinical Services, CareOregon. Alexa collaborates with cross-regional primary care and dental partners to advance member engagement, integration initiatives, and quality health outcomes. She has supported oral health at CareOregon since 2015 and holds her Expanded Practice Dental Hygiene license with clinical experience in both private practice and public health settings.

Paulina Kaiser, Director for Research and Evaluation, Samaritan Health Services. Paulina is an epidemiologist by training and brings a public health perspective to leveraging data to improve population health and health equity. Paulina has worked at Samaritan since 2016.

Cara Kangas, Director of Partnerships, 211info. Cara leads efforts to establish and cultivate meaningful connections with non-profits, government agencies, health care systems, and other community-based organizations. She has directed the 211info's community outreach and engagement efforts, as well as the Coordination Center, connecting providers and patients with linkage to social services through resource navigation using a closed-loop information and referral platform.

Safina Koreishi, Senior Medical Director of Clinical Services and Columbia Pacific CCO Medical Director, CareOregon. In addition to her roles at CareOregon, Safina is also an adjunct assistant professor at Oregon Health Sciences University, and at the OHSU- PSU School of Public Health. She is board certified in both family and preventive medicine and has spent her career practicing family medicine and providing clinical leadership in safety-net clinics. She has a passion for public health, underserved medicine, serving the community, and improving/ transforming the systems of care for patients as well as for those who work within it.

Ruth Krystopolski, President and CEO, Ayin Health Solutions at Providence Health. In her over 35 years in health care, Ruth has been committed to ensuring health care is affordable and accessible to all. Ruth has broad and deep experience across the health care continuum and has led technology and analytics solutions to help empower progress on how care is delivered. Ruth also focuses on supporting internal capabilities to optimize operations, supporting on-going administration, and providing a strong foundation for growth including worker's compensation.

Cat Livingston, Medical Director, Health Share of Oregon. Cat is a family physician and preventive medicine physician who conducts academic research and sees patients at OHSU. Her key areas of policy interest include evidence-based policy, substance use disorder, population health, metrics, and social determinants of health.

Menolly Kaufman, Director of Analytics and Evaluation, CareOregon. Menolly's team supports value-based contracts and programs across physical, dental, and behavioral health. Prior to her role at CareOregon, she spent many productive years in academic research studying how Medicaid policy impacted maternal and child wellbeing.

Justin Keller, Senior Program Consultant, Oregon Health Leadership Council. Justin serves as the Health Information Exchange policy subject matter expert for HIT Commons. Prior to joining OHLC, Justin was Director of Partnerships at Collective Medical. Previously, Justin was an Operations/Policy Analyst at the Oregon Health Authority in the Office of Health Information Technology, supporting Oregon's Health Information Technology Oversight Council. He has over a decade of health care and information technology experience and holds a Juris Doctorate degree.

Natalie Kenton, Evaluation Manager, CareOregon. Natalie's team conducts systematic and evidence-based evaluations of CareOregon programs and initiatives. Previously, she was a Research Scientist at Providence's Center for Outcomes Research and Education, focused on participatory research methods, health equity, community health workers, and health care transformation.

Melissa Laurie, Research Associate, AB Cultural Drivers. Melissa is an evaluator at AB Cultural Drivers, specializing in culturally responsive and community-engaged approaches. With a Master of Public Health from Columbia University, her expertise in participatory evaluation empowers communities to shape health initiatives. She has dedicated her career to addressing complex health challenges through culturally responsive and community-engaged approaches.

Jill Leake, Director of Clinical Strategies, Oregon Health Leadership Council. Jill supports OHLC's Best Practice Committee, a statewide group of clinical leaders that executes strategies aimed at improving quality, value and patient outcomes. As a registered nurse, she also acts as a clinical consultant on technology initiatives for HIT Commons. Jill's background includes extensive work in population health and process improvement, successfully implementing innovative care transformation programs that enhance patient care and organizational efficiencies.

Luci Longoria, Community Engagement Portfolio Manager, Health Share of Oregon. Luci promotes community engagement leadership among many collaborators. Luci was previously Equity, Diversity and Inclusion Portfolio Manager at CareOregon, which followed her 26 years in public health service, primarily in executive leadership for health promotion and chronic disease prevention for OHA.

Chelsea Maranville, Triple P Program Manager, Greater Oregon Behavioral Health Inc. and Eastern Oregon Coordinated Care Organization. Chelsea began her career at a children's trauma center as a Registered Respiratory Therapist. In 2016, Chelsea made the transition from the health care setting to parenting education and prevention for behavioral health and has been at the ground-level of implementing the Triple P Positive Parenting Program throughout Oregon. She enjoys providing strategies and support to parents and families and witnessing the positive impact on the family system.

Lisa Matisoff, Human Service Supervisor, Oregon Department of Human Services. Lisa has worked for ODHS for 15 years, with the last ten years as a supervisor. She is also the point person for the Washington County Preventative Staffing committee. In her free time, she enjoys going to the coast, spending time with family and hanging out with her senior chihuahua bear.

Jenny McKenzie, Social Health Specialist, CareOregon. Jenny supports programs and services that improve the social health of members and their communities, including supporting the network of community-based organizations that provide these services.

Andrew B. Mendenhall, President and Chief Executive Officer, Central City Concern. Andy oversees all aspects of Central City Concern (CCC). He previously served CCC as Senior Medical Director for Substance Use Disorder Services and Chief Medical Officer. Andy has elevated and diversified CCC's services to offer a broad array of evidence-based treatments to match client needs.

Ruby Moon, Community Health Manager for the Confederated Tribes of Siletz Indians, Siletz Community Health Clinic. Ruby holds a bachelor's degree in public health and a master's degree in public policy. Ruby has been in her current position with the tribe for nearly a decade and is a strong believer in the capacity for regional work to collectively strengthen communities.

Ifeoma Muoto, Director for Community Health Partnerships, CareOregon. Ifeoma facilitates partnerships and leads programs that help grow and strengthen the network of non-clinical community-based organizations providing social health services for CareOregon members and their communities.

Phyusin Myint, Chief Health Equity and Impact Officer at Health Share of Oregon. Phyusin is a dedicated public servant, scholar, and health equity leader in the Oregon public health community. Phyusin has been on the Oregon Public Health Association (OPHA)'s Executive Board for over five years, currently serving as the Immediate Past President.

Travis Nelson, Oregon State Representative, District 44 - Portland. Throughout his career as a registered nurse, Travis saved lives by practicing constant attentiveness along with being a strong advocate. He specialized in emergency nursing, critical care nursing, medical-surgical nursing and rehabilitation nursing. He knows health care is intersectional and is entwined with our environment, housing policy, racial justice, and so many other social determinants of health. It is this intersectionality that initially drove him to run for office. He is a former Vice President of the Oregon Nurses Association and a graduate of Washington State University's School of Nursing.

Leslie Neugebauer, Vice President of Community Health, Social Needs, and Health Equity, PacificSource Community Solutions. Leslie has served PacificSource's members and communities in various roles over her eleven-year tenure. She started her career as an occupational therapist working in two hospital systems. Her interests in prevention, policy, and management led her to pursue a Master of Science in Public Health. For the last seven years Leslie has served on the board of directors for the KIDS Center, Central Oregon's only child abuse evaluation and treatment center.

Rob Nosse, Oregon State Representative, District 42 - Portland. Rob has spent his entire working life trying to make positive social change for students and working families. Most recently, Rob worked at the Oregon Nurses Association where, for almost twenty years, he advocated for working people and nurses as a union representative. Rob has been an activist on LGBTQIA2S+ rights since 1992 and worked to bring marriage equality to our state. Rob is currently Chair of the House Interim Committee on Behavioral Health and Health Care and led CCO Salons over Summer 2024 to inform legislative changes for the next multiyear CCO contract.

Erin Oldenkamp, Certified Pediatric Nurse Practitioner Primary Care and Pediatric Mental Health Specialist, Adventist Health. Erin graduated in 2010 from Vanderbilt University and practiced for seven years at Tillamook Community Health Center followed by Adventist Health in Tillamook for the last seven years.

Deb Patterson, Oregon State Senator, District 10 -Salem. Deb has served for over 20 years in health care administration, including serving as Executive Director of the International Parish Nurse Resource Center, which equipped RNs to provide health care advocacy and education around the world. Deb also served as Executive Director of Northwest Parish Nurse Ministries, based in Portland, and was vice president of a children's health philanthropy. She has also been employed on the senior management team of a multi-hospital health system in the Midwest and has served on a wide variety of governing boards for health and human service organizations. Deb is currently chair of the Senate Interim Committee on Health Care.

Hai Pham, Oregon State Representative, District 36 -South Hillsboro and West Beaverton. Hai immigrated to the United States as a refugee, and is now a pediatric dentist, cancer survivor and legislator. Hai's experience struggling to pay medical bills furthered his passion for health system reforms, and his dental practice focuses on providing care for underserved children. Hai completed his dental degree and specialty training at Oregon Health & Sciences University and Doernbecher.

Oakley Rae Phoenix-Torres, Trans and Racial Justice Community Trainer/Organizer, Basic Rights Oregon. Oak, a Black transmasculine genderqueer organizer and author, leads Basic Rights Oregon's Catalyst transgender leadership cohort. A Magna Cum Laude graduate of Willamette University, Oak is also the author of "The Gender Friend".

Lisa Reynolds, Oregon State Representative, District 34 -Northeast Washington County. Lisa is a pediatrician at The Children's Clinic in Washington County, where she helps families shepherd their babies into children and children into young adults. In the exam room, she sees what is and what isn't working for Oregon families, and this influences everything she does in the legislature. Her health care background informs decisions on policies and services that encompass 30% of Oregon's budget.

Jeremiah Rigsby, Chief of Staff, CareOregon. Jeremiah moved to Oregon in 2011 to attend Lewis and Clark Law School. Before moving to Oregon, Jeremiah was a congressional aide to US Congressman Henry Cuellar and US Congressman Kurt Schrader. During his time on the Hill, Jeremiah worked on a number of policy issues, but focused on health care policy through the development and passage of the Affordable Care Act. After completing law school, Jeremiah joined CareOregon to help develop and advocate for Medicaid and Medicare policy.

Emma Sandoe, Medicaid Director, Oregon Health Authority. Prior to joining OHA, Emma was the Deputy Director of Medicaid Policy at North Carolina Medicaid. She previously served as the spokesperson for Medicaid and HealthCare.gov at the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services and worked on Affordable Care Act coordination at the Department of Health and Human Services Budget Office. She received her PhD in Health Policy focusing on Medicaid from Harvard University, MPH at George Washington University, and undergraduate degrees from University of California, San Diego.

Katie Scheelar, Senior Clinical Program Manager of Pharmaceutical Programs, Eastern Oregon CCO. Katie joined Moda Health in 2010 and serves Medicaid patients through Eastern Oregon CCO, as well as working on Medicare, workers' compensation, hospital systems, and many private and public commercial entities throughout Oregon, Washington, Alaska, and more. Katie also supports employee benefit boards using evidence-based clinical practice to evaluate safety and efficacy. She earned her Doctor of Pharmacy from Oregon State University College of Pharmacy in 2010, where she trained in the combined doctoral programs of Oregon State and OHSU.

Jennifer Schwartz, System of Care Coordinator, Samaritan Health Plans/Intercommunity Health Network CCO. Jennifer supports the System of Care in Linn, Benton and Lincoln Counties. She works with agency partners, community partners, youth and families to identify barriers and successes in children's services and uses the collective impact model to improve care and outcomes for young people with complex needs and their families.

Maureen Seferovich, Health Systems Integration Program Manager, Health Share of Oregon. Maureen is a licensed clinical social worker, and over the last two decades she has worked in the areas of behavioral health and health plan operations. Her current focus is on supporting the implementation of Oregon's new Health Related Social Needs (HRSN) benefit.

Amina Sheikh-Wali, Community Health Consultant, Kaiser Permanente Northwest. Amina specializes in social health determinants, housing issues, and equity in health care for people of color and immigrant communities. Amina holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Portland State University and is pursuing an MBA in Healthcare Administration at Eastern Washington University.

Selby Stebbins, System of Care Specialist, Health Share of Oregon. Selby has been coordinating the Tri-County System of Care Collaborative for six years. She is passionate about using her public health skills to improve services for children and families through systems change, and values working with diverse community partners in pursuit of that goal.

Lexi Stickel, Senior Community Health Coordinator, PacificSource Columbia Gorge CCO. Lexi has over a decade of experience combining health care administration and nonprofit management with an emphasis on asset-based community development, facilitation, and project management. She has a Master's in Conflict and Dispute Resolution from University of Oregon's School of Law, a Master's in International Studies, and a certificate in Nonprofit Management. She previously worked on food systems and food access, and currently serves on the Board of Directors of the Columbia Gorge Food Bank.

Kerrin Swanson, Certified Pediatric Nurse Practitioner Primary Care, Adventist Health. Kerrin graduated in 2018 from Maryville University of St. Louis and has been practicing with Adventist Health in Pacific City and Tillamook since 2018.

Erin Fair Taylor, Vice President of Medicaid Programs, PacificSource Community Solutions. Erin works with regional Health Councils, Medicaid leaders, and strategic community partners to promote health equity and ensure access to high quality Medicaid services. She previously worked at CareOregon, where she led efforts to stand up and operate CCOs across the state and established in-house council functions. Her roles at CareOregon included chief strategy officer, chief legal officer, and interim director of government relations for Health Share of Oregon. Erin earned a JD from the University of Oregon Law School, an MPH from Tulane University, and a BA from the University of Florida.

Mariam Ukbazghi, Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion Portfolio Manager, Health Share of Oregon. Miriam is responsible for supporting the advancement of equity, diversity, and inclusion (EDI) operationalization within Health Share. Mariam previously served as the inaugural Equity Programs Manager at Fora Health, where she provided strategic guidance in the development of organizational EDI initiatives and concentrated on the development and implementation of culturally and linguistically appropriate services within the behavioral health organization.

Joan Watson-Patko, Executive Director, Oregon Primary Care Association. Joan has more than 25 years of experience in health, education, workforce development, and social services, where she provided leadership to organizations with a focus on communities experiencing significant inequities. At OPCA, Joan led the development process of a clinically integrated network subsidiary, the Oregon Network of Community Health Centers. Joan holds a BA in women's studies and an MSW from Temple University.

Karen Weiner, Behavioral Health Program Manager, Samaritan Health Plans/Intercommunity Health Network CCO. Karen has been involved in the service of children and families with complex histories since she became a social worker in 1983. She increased her coordinated efforts to improve services with system partners in 2000 and continues to support state and local efforts to develop and expand community-based services.

Liz Whitworth, Managing Director, Oregon Health Leadership Council and HIT Commons. Liz is engaged in the adoption and spread of several statewide initiatives involving health information technology, including Health Information Exchange (HIE) and Community Information Exchange (CIE). Liz has 25+ years of health care experience in health care policy, quality measurement and reporting, technology planning and implementation, program evaluation, stakeholder facilitation, and organizational management. She holds a master's degree in public health and a graduate certificate in emergency management and community resilience.

Katy Williams, Community Impact Manager, Columbia Gorge Health Council. Katy is a Licensed Practical Nurse and Community Health Worker with 20 years of experience in clinical and community-based health. She plays a lead role in the creation and implementation of the Bridges to Health Program, which is addressing barriers to health with a cross-sector network of community health workers.

Victor Wilson, Community Health Worker, Native American Youth and Family Center. Victor is Athabascan/Klamath Paiute Native American, a father to two daughters, fire tender for ceremonies, traditional dancer, powwow drummer, traveler, and massage therapist. Victor enjoys helping others become better.

Tracy Winn, Senior Medical Director of Addiction Service, Cascadia Health. Tracy is a psychiatric-mental health nurse practitioner who is also certified in advanced practice addictions (CARN-AP). She has worked at Cascadia for a decade in various programs. She developed specialization in treating co-occurring mental health and substance use disorders in previous roles at both Cascadia and Central City Concern. Tracy is a passionate advocate for low/no barrier and harm reduction approaches in the care of persons who use drugs, as well as pushing for true integration in the treatment of co-occurring disorders.

Lucy Zammarelli, System of Care Supervisor, Lane County Health and Human Services. Lucy has extensive experience in the behavioral health field and works in a variety of areas including children's health, community training, workforce development, rural health disparities, geriatric competence, disaster response, and integrated treatment for behavioral health and primary care.